

The un retouched photos were taken 1/27-28/07 in the Mission Bay area of San Diego. An effort was made to keep organic or man made materials in frame as a reference to camera focus and the size of the clouds.

Keith,

From the pre dawn spraying, your birthday started out like any day, if it was created by Salvadore Dali...

The chemical clouds quickly disperse into artificial cirrus clouds.

The "Chemtrails" contain aluminum, barium, ethylene dibromide and other chemicals.

Ethylene dibromide has been linked to kidney and liver damage and is an immunosuppressive and a lung irritant.

The results of the spraying vary from odd cloud formations to kaleidoscopic soup patterns.

This is not the familiar jet “contrail” from our childhood which form when hot engine exhaust condenses ice crystals into pencil-thin vapor trails that quickly vanish like the wake behind a boat.

This is the delivery system of the poison Chemtrails or in less aggressive word smithing...persistent contrails.

At days end the sky is a bizarre canvas of artificially created cirrus clouds.

But it seems to be never enough for them and they will fly over and over through the clouds. Often they will fly above the cumulus rain clouds and break them up preventing rainfall.

The one pleasing side affect of the spraying is colorful sunsets.

But even then they give it one last spray.

Then, it is someone else's birthday,
and they wake up to another bizarre sky from the pre dawn spraying.

Unfortunately their day is worse than yours. The chemical oil slick can be seen here.

And the sprayer planes continue making passes over the sky till a death mask is worn by the atmosphere.

As the sun sets on someone else's birthday
the remnants of the active and passive poison clouds are breathtakingly beautiful as they literally take our breath and health away.

The worst news is they will be back for someone's birthday every day till we take back our country.

“Our impulses are being redirected. We are living in an artificially induced state of consciousness that resembles sleep...the poor and the underclass are growing... They have created a repressive society and we are their unwitting accomplices... ..their intention to rule rests with the annihilation of consciousness. We have been lulled into a trance. They have made us indifferent, to ourselves, to others, we are focused only on our own gain...they are safe as long as they are not discovered. That is their primary method of survival. Keep us asleep, keep us selfish, keep us sedated...We are their cattle. We are being bred for slavery.”

– From John Carpenter's "They Live"

“We had grasped the great truth that it was not rifles...that created power... Power depended upon public obedience, upon a willingness to submit... Our sole weapon was publicity. Not propaganda...so that no one could say afterward, "I didn't know.”
